

Music Special Interest Group (Musicsig)

The Musicsig meets several times during each semester and explore a broad range of composers, from Copland to Mozart, from Dvorak to Shubert. If you are interested in classical music, listening to the sublime works of a variety of composers and hearing about their lives with like-minded friends and colleagues, come join us!